

Community College

Introduction

Community college has been sanctioned from MHRD and AICTE New Delhi from 2013 – 2014 with the following objectives

- i) To provides an opportunities for skill integrated flexible, relevant, affordable and lifelong learning for any type of people in the communities to acquire an employable skills for their lively hood.
- ii) Providing basic skills knowledge and attitude for self/wage employment to intended students in their own villages/communities or nearby areas.
- iii) Imparting entrepreneurial skills for imitating micro/tiny enterprises especially for the rural youth and community
- iv) Offering skill up-gradation programs in their own fields, or for adoption of appropriate technologies for enhancing their employment prospects.

The following sectors were sanctioned under community colleges with 5 levels each of 9 month duration. After completion of each level certificate in the community skills in the respective sector will be given and after completion of all levels the candidate will be awarded as a community skill diploma.

Courses:

SECTORS	SPECIALIZATION	INTAKE
Automobile	Automobile	100
Manufacturing	Product Manufacturing	100
Service	Electrical Equipment Maintenance	100

Eligibility : SSLC or Equivalent